You may want to take a look at ECPI's brief profile below should you wish to consider the said company in your securities investment portfolio.

COMPANY BACKGROUND:

(For more information, please visit www.easycall.com.ph.)

Easycall Communications Philippines, Inc. is a publicly-listed company whose vision is to be a world-class business solutions provider of cost-effective technology, connectivity, and interaction solutions to domestic and foreign markets.

The Company started commercial operations in May 1989, pioneering in the alphanumeric paging services. In 1992, ECPI became the market leader in the industry and has maintained this leadership since, achieving exceptional growth in its subscriber base until late 1999 when the SMS of cellular phone companies started to impact the paging industry.

In 2009, ECPI saw the entry of Star Asia Technologies PTE, Ltd (SAT) into the Company. SAT is a developer of integrated mobile satellite and terrestrial broadband wireless network services. SAT is working towards advancements in the development of an all IP-based integrated satellite and terrestrial mobile communications network throughout Southeast Asia.

Today, ECPI is a provider of telecommunication and data network services using 15MHz within the 3.4GHz band. The frequency allocation is intended to be used in conjunction with ECPI's Nationwide Broadband Wireless Access license as issued by the National Telecommunications Commission. Current projects in the pipeline include a partnership with Samsung for the provision of Mobile WiMAX systems, terminals, and engineering support that will enable ECPI to provide high-quality and high-speed broadband services within the 3.4GHz spectrum and an on-going project with SAT and Broadband Broadcast Services PTE, Ltd for a head-end satellite co-location facility in Subic.
